

Why McKenzie is such a special place to work

Once you meet the wonderful people who work at McKenzie, you'll realise there's something very special going on here.

When we started as a family business back in 1998, we were determined to provide the kind of aged care we'd want for our own family.

We feel the same way about the people who work with us. We consider them our 'extended family'. We respect the amazing work they do. We encourage them to develop and grow. And we love to see them laughing, because we know that a smile can make someone's day.

We're always looking for people who share our positivity and desire for excellence, and we encourage you to apply for a position with us.
